

Shoshana K. Deming

Shoshana is currently attending the Community College of Baltimore County in Catonsville, Maryland. Shoshana originally graduated from Towson University with a Bachelor of Science in History and Ancient Mediterranean Languages in 2012. She pursued additional Master's courses in Jewish Studies in 2013. After achieving her undergraduate degree, Shoshana worked as a criminal defense paralegal and Slavic language interpreter. After experiencing her own loss, Shoshana eventually decided to return to school to become a Mortician. Shoshana is currently looking to begin her Mortician Apprenticeship and hopes to graduate from CCBC in December 2024.

In her free time, Shoshana enjoys spending time with her husband, Michael, friends, and 3 cats. She enjoys learning new languages, writing short stories, and improving her sculpture skills.

Shoshana is honored to be a recipient of the ABFSE Scholarship. She intends to use these funds to further her education and pay for additional classes in the Spring 2024 semester. Shoshana thanks the ABSFE Scholarship Committee and Donors for providing this wonderful opportunity.
