

My name is Bailey Wolf and I am twenty-two years old. I grew up in the small community of Oconto Falls, Wisconsin. When I first decided to pursue a career in funeral service, I began working at the local funeral home in my hometown, Jones Funeral Service. Instantly, I fell in love with all that funeral service had to offer and the ability it gave me to help the people within my community. I then began spending my college summers working in Milwaukee, Wisconsin at Krause Funeral Home, a large family run firm. Again, I fell in love with funeral service and the innovative environment that is needed in a larger city. I went to school at the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities where I will graduate with a Bachelor of Science in Mortuary Science with a Religious Studies minor. I am eager to begin my career as a funeral director where I will strive to serve families in some of the most intimate and difficult moments of their life. I aim to capture the unique story that each life has and help families celebrate and honor their loved ones in a dignified manner.
