

Ryleigh DeGroff is an online student at Worsham College of Mortuary Science Class of January 2025. She is from Paw Paw, Michigan, and graduated from Paw Paw High School in 2023. She currently works as an apprentice at the local funeral home in Paw Paw. She loves her small community of Paw Paw and the people there.

Ryleigh is also a certified firefighter and volunteers for the Paw Paw Volunteer Fire Department. In her spare time, she loves listening to music, hanging out with her family and friends, and babysitting.

Ryleigh is extremely grateful to receive this scholarship and would like to thank everyone who has helped her on her path to success. She could not have done it without her strong support system of family, friends, and funeral service mentors.
