

Jenna Riley - Bio

Jenna Riley is a Funeral Service Education student studying funeral directing and embalming at Fayetteville Technical Community College in Fayetteville, North Carolina. Following her passion to help her community through bereavement, she enrolled at FTCC in 2020.

Jenna enjoys playing viola, working in her pollinator garden, baking, reading about advancements in the field of death care, and volunteering with Piedmont Wildlife Center in Durham, N.C. She looks forward to beginning her apprenticeship next spring and anticipates graduating from the FSE program during the fall of 2022.

Originally from Raleigh, N.C., Jenna currently resides in Durham, N.C. with her four-legged furry family members and husband, Lucas.