

James Thomas - Bio

James started mortuary school in late 2018 at San Antonio College. He started working as a provisional funeral director and embalmer in January 2021. Helping families and serving the community are some of his motivations.

James likes to explore nature and identify plants and animals in his free time.